50 SHADES OF GREEN
AN ECO-FRIENDLY INITIATIVE

Our Commitment to Sustainability

Energy-Saving Initiatives
1. All lighting is LED
2. Integrated solar-heated water
3. Solar-reflective roof paint reduces room temperatures by 30%
4. Electrical 3-phase balancing technology to optimise electricity usage
5. Induction cookers in the kitchen
6. Ceiling fans to complement air conditioners
7. Regular defrosting of freezers
8. Gas cooking in the kitchen
9. A+ rated washing machines in the laundry
10. 85% Solar energy

Water Conservation
11. Drought-resistant garden plants
12. Rainwater tanks and filtered water for the lodge
13. Reduced lawn, more trees for shade and groundwater conservation
14. Water-saving showerheads
15. Dual-flush toilets
16. Indigenous lawns
17. Indigenous shade plants
18. Resident mongoose family to reduce pests naturally – no poisons
19. Drip-dry wash lines
20. Reuse towels encouraged in lodges
21. On-demand water gardens
20. Showers instead of baths
21. Insulated hot water pipes
22. Showers instead of baths
23. Insulated hot water pipes
24. Use of watering cans

Sustainable Food Practices
25. Locally sourced fruits and vegetables
26. Kitchen herb garden
27. Foil-wrapped butter to reduce waste
28. Cloth serviettes
29. Grilled menu options
30. Locally produced honey
31. Whole foods and barbecue service

Chemical & Material Sustainability
32. Use of organic fertilizers
33. Durable, eco-friendly paints
34. Glass recycling
35. Paper recycling
36. Vinegar-softened linen
37. Reuse of plastic drinking bottles for housekeeping
38. Eco-friendly guest amenities

Nature & Wildlife Conservation
39. Bat houses
40. Owl houses
41. Membership in the BirdLife Association
42. Promote birdwatching, hiking, and biking
43. Glass doors to maximize natural light
44. Composting with tree leaves
45. Worm farming
46. All pets sterilized
47. Resident hippos help cut grass naturally

Eco-Events & Experiences
48. Celebrate and embrace all eco-days
49. Whale watching from your ocean-view veranda

Staff Sustainability
50. Bicycles for staff use